One of the first things the Democratic State Executive Committee did to-day at its meeting was to take steps to find out the names of the seventy-four members who were present at the Bar Association meeting and passed the resolutions. The point the Democratis will make is that the seventy-four men represented only their own views and not the opinion of the 1,182 members of the Bar Association.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 11.- There was apparently no larger an attendance of Senators this morning than there has been any day for several weeks past, arley Johnston, who was come John L. It is understood that the Administration has spoken, and that there will be no more conferences and no attempts at that nothing can be accomplished by this continuous session. The last hope that something tangible might be offered before to-night has vanished, and the day will be spent in debate until the endurance to begin.

Whether a quorum can be kept at the Capitol during the weary watches of the night is a mooted question. The rules When share of the profits a stormy scene ensued.

Furey it is mail, told Johnston and Dunne that certain pediticions had to be "fixed" and that fire profits had been reduced to almost nothing because of these expenditures.

At this announcement Dunne, who is an ex-puglist, is said to have "semashed" Furey. The outcome of the scene was the serving of the papers in the suit.

Should they dedline to stay the time will be authorize the Sergeant-at-Arms to com-

Should they dedine to stay there will be no speeches and the time will be simply wasted, for the silver men, who are charged with maintaining the debute will insist that this quorum shall be present constantly. The repeal Democrats this morning admitted that the quorum necessary to-night could only be had through the voluntary action of the members of the Senate.

The pile of books on Mr. Cockrell's desk was larger to-day than it was yesterday, indicating that the third instalment of his speech will be of greater length than the first two were. It may extend all through to-day's session, even if it should continue till daybreak to-morrow.

Mr. Bute (bem., Tenn.) sent to the clerk's desk and had read a series of resolutions adopted at a large meeting of the citizens of Lincoin County, Tennessee, commending the action of the Tennessee, commending the action of the Tennessee, commending the selection of the Tennessee, commending the selection of the Central to the charge the Repeal bill to be in the interest alone of the wealthy and creditor classes.

Mr. Cockrell resumed his speech at
